KENYA MEDICAL TRAINING COLLEGE
FACULTY OF NURSING
DEPARTMENT OF NURSING

FINAL QUALIFYING EXAMINATION
FOR
DIPLOMA IN COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING

PAPER: COMMUNITY HEALTH

DATE: 24th JULY, 2024 TIME: 3 HOURS (9:00 AM – 12 NOON)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This paper consists of:
   - Section 1 (40 Multiple Choice Questions)
   - Section 2 (8 Short Answer Questions)
   - Section 3 (1 Long Answer Question)
2. Attempt ALL Questions
3. ALL Multiple choice questions MUST be answered in CAPITAL LETTERS
4. Write your EXAMINATION NUMBER on all the answer sheets provided and on the question paper.
5. No other writing should be done on the question paper except your Examination Number.
6. Ensure that all examination answer scripts are handed in at the end of the examination
7. Ensure you sign the examination register provided

EXAMINATION NUMBER .....

Scanned with ACE Scanner

COMMUNITY HEALTH

SECTION 1: MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS (40 MARKS)

1. Quality assurance in nursing involves ensuring that healthcare services provided to clients consistently meet or exceed established standards of care. The principle of quality assurance that you will consider while providing quality nursing care services to your clients is;
   A. Creation of steering committee
   B. Staff Mentorship
   C. Policy development
   D. Customer focused

2. When conducting basic research in nursing, it's essential to understand that:
   A. Research is a requirement for all the nursing students
   B. Research is a tool for quality improvements in nursing
   C. Research is done in the clinical field by the experts
   D. Research is best carried out in a formal organization

3. As the team leader for the disaster management and response team at the County Referral Hospital, your major goal would be:
   A. Organization and management of resources and responsibilities for dealing with all humanitarian aspects of emergencies, in particular, preparedness, response and recovery in order to lessen the impact of disasters
   B. Create a more durable and effective recovery from the disaster and plan proactively to mitigate the risks faced by a population
   C. Managing complex emergencies; involving a break-down of authority, looting and attacks on strategic installations, including conflict situations and war.
   D. Increase awareness, education, preparedness, and prediction and put- up warning systems that can reduce the disruptive impact of a natural disaster on communities

4. Your supervisor asks you to plan for community diagnosis at Yala community. The basic information you will collect prior to carrying out the community diagnosis is:
   A. The social facilities in the community
   B. The infrastructure network in the community
   C. The diseases affecting the community
   D. The agricultural activities in the community

5. Communicable diseases require special attention to control due to several key factors. A communicable disease is said to have been controlled when:
   A. Its incidence has been reduced to zero
   B. A large percentage of children have been immunized against the disease.
   C. Its prevalence has been reduced to manageable level.
   D. No deaths have occurred due to the disease for a period of time.

6. Vaccines that are sensitive to light are often supplied in dark glass vials or ampules. These vaccines include:
   A. Measles, Pentavalent, BCG, Rota virus vaccine
   B. Measles- Rubella, Pneumococcal vaccine, BCG
   C. BCG, measles, measles-mumps-rubella and rubella
   D. Pentavalent, Measles, Pneumococcal vaccine, BCG

7. The primary health care elements that were added by the Kenya government to the Alma Ata declaration are:
   A. Health education and immunization
   B. HIV/AIDS prevention and maternal and child health
   C. HIV/AIDs prevention and Malaria control
   D. Health education and mental health

Scanned with ACE Scanner

8. As a program manager in your county, you are expected to establish Community development projects at the grass root level, how would you engage the community to participates in the project;
   A. By receiving financial resources and budgets from the government
   B. By implementing the planned activities by project managers
   C. By recruiting and training project managers and implementers
   D. By organizing and planning together the community development projects
9. In research, a study where the investigator attempts to trace an effect is referred to as:
   A. Survey Research
   B. 'Ex-post Facto' Research
   C. Historical Research
   D. Summative Research
10. The approach to implementing the Kenya Essential Package for health (KEPH) is;
   A. Annual operational plan
   B. Community strategy
   C. Primary health care
   D. National health sector strategic plan
11. The following are types of student-centered learning methods;
   A. Inquiry-Based Learning and Direct Instruction
   B. Direct Instruction and lecture Learning
   C. Inquiry-Based Learning and Cooperative learning
   D. Direct Instruction and Cooperative learning
12. When providing health care services at the Comprehensive Care Centre you would measure the effectiveness of Antiretroviral Therapy (ART) by;
   A. The rise in plasma HIV antibodies level and CD4 count
   B. The reduction in opportunistic infections and viral load
   C. The fall in the plasma viral load and increase in CD4 count
   D. The rise in red blood cell count and HIV antibodies level
13. When providing health care services at level two health facility to cohort one, according to KEPH 2012 which key health messages will you give for the cohort?
   A. Avoid use of alcohol and drugs during labour and child birth
   B. Early initiation of breastfeeding within one hour after birth
   C. Early sexual activity and alcohol use after child birth
   D. Avoid drinking water during labour and child birth
14. The type of research that focuses on finding causes or variables responsible for the origin, existence and subsistence of a problem is;
   A. Explanatory research
   B. Comparative research
   C. Remedial research
   D. Diagnostic research
15. According to the Community Health Strategy policy on service delivery at level one, the functions of community health committee include;
   A. Planning community health actions and reviewing the Sub County health plans
   B. Identifying community health priorities and planning community health actions
   C. Planning community health actions and evaluation of Sub County health plans
   D. Monitoring and evaluating Sub County health plans and commodity management
16. The use of IUCD is one of the most widely accepted methods of contraception because;
   A. It reduces the fertilizing capacity of the sperms
   B. It makes the uterus unsuitable for implantation
   C. It suppresses sperm motility
   D. Increases breakage of sperms

Scanned with ACE Scanner

17. Which of the following sampling methods is appropriate to study the prevalence of AIDS amongst male and female in your county for the last 3 years?
    A. Cluster sampling
    B. Systematic sampling
    C. Quota sampling
    D. Stratified random sampling
18. The system that controls protein metabolism in the human body is;
    A. Digestive
    B. Nervous
    C. Endocrine
    D. Respiratory
19. As a registered community health nurse you organize regular health screening and education programme. What would be your aim for regular screening at the outpatient clinic;
    A. To prevent transmission of tuberculosis
    B. To provide nutritional supplements
    C. To prevent communicable diseases
    D. To detect diseases for early interventions
20. The aspects of internal environment of the family that influences the health of the family members includes;
    A. Family structure, family size and type
    B. Cultural patterns and water source
    C. Family structure and water supply
    D. Cultural patterns and house construction
21. You are engaged in a study where you collect data from the participants with rich descriptive details and situated in particular cultural context. You engage in face to face interaction with your participants. Which technique of data collection are you using?
    A. Descriptive
    B. Quantitative
    C. Qualitative
    D. Objective
22. Community diagnosis will help a registered community health nurse to identify which of the health problems affecting the community;
    A. Malnutrition and educational level
    B. Epidemics and malnourishment
    C. Epidemics and understaffing
    D. Lack of funding and malnutrition
23. 'Health for ALL' according to WHO is;
    A. The essential health care based on practical, scientifically and acceptable method
    B. The attainment by all the realization of the highest possible level of health
    C. The state of complete health and absence of disease, disability and death
    D. The personal state of complete wellbeing and not merely the absence of disease
24. Zena is conducting a cross-sectional study in your County. Her research question involves the prevalence rates for diabetic mellitus among male adults. Which is the best method for her study?
    A. Case study
    B. Participatory
    C. Survey
    D. Experiment

Scanned with ACE Scanner

25. The Sub County Public Health Nurse asks you to plan for a school health programme within your Sub County. What are the components you will consider during the activity?
   A. School health services, health education, healthy school environment
   B. Health education, outreach services, healthy school environment
   C. School health services, dental health, home visits
   D. Community mobilization, deworming, home visits

26. A patient presents to the outpatient clinic with history of magical thinking, peculiar notions, ideas of references, illusions and derealisation. Which personality disorder does this patient suffer from?
   A. Paranoid
   B. Borderline
   C. schizoid
   D. Schizotypal

27. Every functional and effective organization has a vision, mission and core values, what does a mission statement refer to;
   A. A short statement of why an organization exists, stating its overall goal and identifies the goal of its operations.
   B. A mental picture of the result you want to achieve, a picture so clear and strong it will help make that result real.
   C. A short statement that describes what a company desires to achieve in the long-run, generally in a time frame of five to ten years, or sometimes even longer.
   D. A statement that helps keep organizations and groups focused and together, especially with complex projects and in stressful times.

28. Mr John, a patient in psychiatric ward constantly maintains a position without any movement. Which type of motor activity disorder is he suffering from?
   A. Mannerism
   B. Cataplexy
   C. Verbigeration
   D. Negativism

29. The core elements of a research study are;
   A. Executive summary, literature review, data collection, references, appendixes
   B. Introduction, data collection, data analysis, conclusions, recommendations
   C. Research plan, executive summary, data analysis, references, recommendations
   D. Introduction, literature review, methodology, references, recommendations

30. You are invited to provide health talk during a chief's barasa. What would be the factors that would influence your public speaking?
   A. Flexibility and attitude of the audience
   B. The topic of presentation and flexibility
   C. Attitude of the audience and speaking loudly
   D. The topic of presentation and the attitude of the audience

31. A client with history of heart disease comes to MCH/FP department for contraceptive method of family planning. Which contraceptive would be ideal for this client;
   A. Diaphragm
   B. IUCD
   C. Oral contraceptive pills
   D. Depo-Provera

32. The Act of parliament that is concerned on the protection of public health in Kenya and lays down rules relative to food hygiene and protection of foodstuffs is
   A. Nurses' Act
   B. Public health Act
   C. Children and young person's Act
   D. Food, drugs and chemical Act

Scanned with ACE Scanner

33. Which of the following statements reflect the pre-contemplation stage of the behavior change model?
    A. "I stopped using butter on my sandwiches to help lower my cholesterol."
    B. "I think I will join a fitness club next month because exercise is going to reduce my risk of having a heart attack."
    C. "I don't think I can change my cholesterol levels with my diet. High cholesterol runs in my family."
    D. "I don't worry about my cholesterol anymore. It has been controlled well with a low fat diet and exercise plan for 6 months."
34. The clinical aim of identifying learner's needs in a learning process is to:
    A. Enhance motivation among learners
    B. Enable a teacher to manage time well
    C. Promote interaction during the learning process
    D. Ensure sequence in the teaching and learning process
35. After you collect data for your research study, the correct process of data analysis that you will follow is;
    A. Data sorting/ tallying, data cleaning, analysis of results, coding and entering
    B. Data cleaning, sorting/tallying, coding, entering and analysis of results
    C. Data cleaning, coding, entering, sorting/tallying and analysis of results
    D. Data sorting/ tallying, analysis of results, data cleaning, coding and entering
36. Which type of delusional disorder is commonly found in a patient diagnosed with paranoid schizophrenia?
    A. Delusion of persecution
    B. Delusion of grandeur
    C. Delusion of guilt
    D. Nihilistic delusion
37. Which of the following type of mosquito causes Filariasis disease?
    A. Anopheles mosquito
    B. Aedes aegipti mosquito
    C. Culex mosquito
    D. Female mosquito
38. During a counselling process, the counsellor directs the client to take steps in order to solve his/her problems. This type of counselling is referred to as;
    A. Prescriptive
    B. Descriptive
    C. Permissive
    D. Client centred
39. In growth and development, motor developments mean the development in the use of arms and legs by;
    A. Strength and speed
    B. Learning and strength
    C. Training and learning
    D. Mind and speed
40. The domain of child development such as physical, cognitive, social and emotional are developed in which of the following process;
    A. Distinctly and holistically
    B. Partiality and holistically
    C. Integrated and holistically
    D. Randomly and partiality

Scanned with ACE Scanner

SECTION 2: SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS (40 MARKS)

41. Primary Health Care principles are fundamental guidelines that shape the implementation and delivery of health care services at the community level. State five (5) basic principles which govern the implementation of PHC in the country (5 marks)
42. Reducing missed opportunities for immunization services is crucial to ensure that all eligible individuals receive timely vaccinations. State five (5) ways of reducing missed opportunities for immunization services at the health centre (5 marks)
43. Community Health Nursing emphasizes care that addresses the health needs of entire populations or communities rather than individual patients. Explain three (3) basic concepts of Community Health Nursing (6 marks)
44. To ensure effective teaching and learning, the lecturer is expected to employ different learning strategies. State four (4) Strategies that the lecturer can utilize for effective learning (4 marks)
45. Proper waste disposal is essential for maintaining public health, preserving the environment, and promoting sustainable development. Explain three (3) advantages of Proper Waste Disposal in the community (6 marks)
46. As a health service provider, outline four (4) measures that can be utilized for attacking the source in controlling communicable diseases (4 marks)
47. You are deployed to provide health care service to cohort six in the community. State five (5) health problems you anticipate that affect the cohort in the community (5 marks)
48. You are a member of the hospital emergency and response team. With an aid of a diagram, elaborate the phases of the disaster management cycle (5 marks)

SECTION 3: LONG ANSWER QUESTION (20 MARKS)

49. The head of the Department of Health and Sanitation in your County has identified discontentment and laxity among the nursing staff. The head of the nurses' union in the county has presented a memorandum to the department indicating threats to down their tools in the next twenty-one (21) days. Indicating some major reasons that would cause discontentment among the nurses, describe how you will utilize the problem solving technique to prevent the strike. (20 marks)

Scanned with ACE Scanner